

Tanya Bowers

Tanya moved to Pasco in 2014. She was particularly compelled by AACCES's History and Recognition committee's efforts to share the experiences and contributions of local African Americans. Given her background in historic preservation, she has endeavored for more of this history to be told.