

Vanessa Moore

Vanessa was born and raised in Richland, WA. As a Staffing Coordinator with Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, Vanessa plays an integral part in recruiting and hiring individuals for positions in various STEM fields. Vanessa holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Washington State University. Her entrepreneurial pursuits lead her to create two businesses and establish a charitable non-profit corporation. She has over 35 years of volunteer service in the local Tri-Cities community, including the United Way, American Heart Association, PTA, March of Dimes, and AAAS. She is an experienced event coordinator and project lead. Vanessa is currently serving as the AACCES Treasurer. Vanessa believes community is the key word in African American Community, Cultural & Educational Society.
