

Cecilia Randolph

Cecilia is one of the founding members of AACCES and currently serving as Membership and Recruitment chairperson. She is married with four children and 23 grandchildren.

She has lived most of her life in Tri-cities. She is a licensed Producer (funeral homes). She retired in 2023, She has been volunteering and helping several nonprofit organizations in our area.

Most of all she loves to work with and help the youth in our community get a better education with AACCES scholarships.

Her volunteer and serving efforts over the past 25+ years have reflected the AACCES motto, "Building Bridges and Bringing People Together".